Investigative Journalism

Course outline

Course Tutor:
BILLY BRIGGS

DURATION:
1 session of 120 minutes

Course Content:

This specialist course will teach, over 2 hours:

Programme:

- Investigating the far right including undercover work - eg Austria's far right, exposing the English defence League, expose of neo-Nazi group, Scottish Dawn; the Iron March data leak. This section will also look at the legal duty to disclose information under the Terrorism Act 2000.
- Investigating extremist madrassas in Pakistan - a case study on ethics, subterfuge and public interest reporting, in line with IPSO and IMPRESS's respective code of conducts.
- Protecting/cultivating sources.
- Tips for investigating safety online.
- Useful websites and tools for investigations
- The Ferret - producing stories from data and FOI requests.